Biographies - continued

Leffingwell then traveled and studied physical science. From 1843 to 1852 he was professor of Chemistry and Natural History at the University of Missouri. Poor health forced him to retire, and he moved to Boston and then New Haven where he devoted himself to his collection of engraved portraits and autograph letters. He was active in the New Haven Colony Historical Society. When he died at age 85, he left the collection to his niece whom he had adopted as his legal heir. (See The Leffingwell Record, pp. 117-118 and Yale Obituaries 1880-1890, pp. 486-487).

William Coit Leffingwell (1788-1833) second son of William Leffingwell, was born in New Haven, graduated from Yale in 1807 and married Sarah Dunham of New York. He was a merchant in New York for many years while maintaining his residence in New Haven where he died at age 44. (See The Leffingwell Record, p. 114 and Yale Biographies, v. 6, p. 140).

Caroline Mary Leffingwell (1790-1877), sister of Edward H. and William C., married Augustus Russell Street (1791-1866) in 1815. He was graduated from Yale in 1812 and although he studied law, a sizeable fortune enabled him to devote himself to scholarly affairs. He founded the Street Professorship of Modern Languages at Yale and built the building for the Yale School of Fine Arts. He and his wife traveled extensively. They had three daughters. The eldest, Caroline Augusta Street, married Andrew Hull Foote (MSS #98). (See The Leffingwell Record, pp. 114-116 and Yale Obituaries, 1860-1870, pp. 195-196).

For biographies of other members of the family whose papers are in the collection, see The Leffingwell Record.

Analysis: This collection supersedes an earlier one with the same manuscript number entitled "The Papers of William Leffingwell". In April, 1980 papers of Christopher, Edward and other family members and additional papers of William Leffingwell were added to the previous collection. Papers of Caroline Mary and Augustus Russell Street were also added. Most of the additional papers come from the Autograph Collection of E.H. Leffingwell. All were inter-filed with the original collection and a new register prepared.

The new collection is housed in 5 boxes and one oversize volume and now consists of letters to and from, accounts and miscellaneous papers of family members. The letters of William from business associates and concerned with land leases in Vermont, Conn. and Ohio, still comprise the bulk of the collection. All letters are filed alphabetically by sender or recipient of the letters. Christopher Leffingwell's papers are chiefly concerned with his activities in the Revolutionary War while those to Edward mostly center around his autograph collection.

The collection starts with a deed from England dated 1698 and ends with obituaries of Edward in 1888. The papers are organized by individual, starting with ancestors of Christopher. Papers of various family members appear near the end of the collection. Miscellaneous papers are filed chronologically.

The oversize volume contains accounts from the shipping firm of Leffingwell and Pierpont for 1798-1799. The entire collection documents the lives and throws light on the activities of three generations of a wealthy Connecticut family.
