

Selected Highlights 2021

Celebrated 100 years on the shoreline at the Pardee-Morris House; welcomed back in-person audiences for outdoor concerts, programs, and tours

—

Expanded Museum's reach with 20 virtual public programs, with lead support from Avangrid/Lighting Up the Arts

—

Opened two new exhibits: Strange Times: Downtown New Haven in the COVID Era and Children of the Elm City

—

Replaced exterior steps of Whitney Library and fabricated new handrails

—

Received Award of Merit for the exhibit FACTORY from Connecticut League of History Organizations

—

Hosted episode on father of American Football, Walter Camp, for NFL Films' Eli's Places

Selected Highlights 2021

Welcomed families as part of the CT Museums-Kids Are Free summer program, with grant support from CT DECD and CT Humanities

—

Completed replacement of PMH main roof with support from The 1772 Foundation

—

Received 67 new acquisitions and added 930 item records to the online collections catalog

—

Launched the video series "Micro-Histories," a companion project to the ongoing print series, for YouTube and Public Access TV

—

Partnered on the NEA Big Read with the International Festival of Arts & Ideas and the New Haven Free Public Library, welcoming the voices of Indigenous writers

—

Served 1,204 Whitney Library patrons onsite and remotely